

Availability of orders for young people

Order	Level	Age range	Min / Max	Reports required	Comments
Absolute Discharge	Lower level	10 – 17 years	N/A	No
Conditional Discharge	Lower level	10 – 17 years	Max 3 years	No
Fine	Lower level	10 – 13 years	£250 max	No	Max applies only in youth court. Presumption that order will be made against parents
		14 – 17 years	£1,000 max	No	Max applies only in youth court. Presumption that order will be made against parents where young person is under 16
Compensation	Lower level	10 – 17 years	£5,000 max per offence	No	Order can be made as a stand-alone penalty or ancillary to other orders. Presumption that order will be made against parents where young person is under 16
Reparation Order	Lower level	10 – 17 years	Max 24 hours	Written report required	Work must be completed within 3 months. Cannot be made in conjunction with custody, a community order or a referral order
Attendance Centre Order	Community order	10 – 15 years	Min 12 hours Max 24 hours	SER	If young person below 14 years, court can impose order for less than the usual minimum if it considers that 12 hours is excessive. Offence must be imprisonable
		16 – 17 years	Min 12 hours  Max 36 hours	SER	Offence must be imprisonable

Order	Level	Age range	Min / Max	Reports required	Comments
Supervision Order	Community order	10 – 17 years	No min Max 3 years	SER	Can have a wide range of attachments. The main order for delivery of an ISSP
Community Service Order	Community order	16 – 17 years	Min 40 hours Max 240 hours	SER	Court must consider the young person is suitable to perform unpaid work and that appropriate work is available. Order must be completed within 12 months. Adult national standards 2000 apply
Custody	Custodial order	10 – 17 years	Tariff has starting point of 12 yrs	SER	Mandatory sentence for murder, available only in the crown court. Court sets minimum tariff to be served in custody